

Quick Attach Work Platform

Quick Attach Work Platform - Connecting quickly to the lift truck, multipurpose forklift work platforms, through putting in blades into blade pockets and chaining platform to the forklift. This accessory can safely and securely transport maintenance employees. The tine or fork lock needs to be engaged so as to secure the platform to the tines correctly. This attachment comprises a checker floor plate platform as well as a long strap together with hook in order to securely connect the platform to the blade truck. These work platforms are made of welded steel and powder coated with a blue finish. They have a lifting capacity of one thousand pounds.